

Principal / Senior Consultants

Based in Edinburgh – competitive salary and benefits package (including contributory pension scheme, private healthcare)

Are you looking for an opportunity to be a leading player in a growing psychology, ergonomics and human factors consultancy? The Keil Centre has a strong international reputation established over 25 years for delivering high quality, innovative solutions for clients. We are at an exciting stage in our development and are looking for experienced consultants who can make a significant contribution to the continued success of our expanding business.

For the right candidate there is the potential to acquire equity in the business, and take a key role in its future direction.

Human Factors

Working with global companies to improve their health & safety performance, you will work with our award-winning team and highly successful range of products. You should be a senior Psychologist or Ergonomist with experience in at least one of the areas of safety culture and behaviour, safety leadership, human error analysis, human factors in design, evaluation of human machine systems.

Assessment & Development

You will complement our highly professional team offering a range of individual, team and organisation development services to both public and private sector clients. You should have in-depth experience in at least two of the following areas: executive coaching, leadership and management development, assessment for performance and potential, resilience and optimal performance, and the design and application of competency frameworks.

We have opportunities in our Human Factors and Assessment and Development teams. Working in either team will require you to be able to demonstrate:

- A proven track record in managing and delivering successful client projects for at least 5 years
- Strong client management skills and experience of winning new business
- The ability to work both independently and as part of a team
- A willingness to travel across the UK and, for the Human Factors post, worldwide
- Commercial awareness, ideally with industry and/or management experience

If you are interested in either post, please email your CV with a covering letter and salary expectations to Pamela MacLean (pamela@keilcentre.co.uk) as soon as possible (Closing date: 26th November 2010. Interviews to be held 13th or 14th December 2010 in Edinburgh). The Keil Centre: www.keilcentre.co.uk, Tel: +44 (0)131 229 6140
